Woodside Village is looking more like home. Where once there were no traces of landscaping ...topsoil, woodchips, gardens, perennials, shrubs, and trees are happening. Dips and drops in some lawn and patio areas have been filled with soil and pea stone, and leveled out for good footing.

Bulbs have been planted in various spots for spring. Grasses and baby trees from the Polly Hill Arboretum nursery have been newly donated and more to come in the spring.

We are excited to have started the "Dinners at 5" again with a new format and menu in an effort to see how we can best continue the program. I want to thank all of you! We know it is a change. We are trying different menus and ideas -- please let us know what you think is working or what could work better.

Thank you to Kevin McFarland for his careful planning, preparation and help in getting us through. Thank you to Hank Sjostrom for continuing his after-dinner movies. And - thank you to all of you for helping with the serving and clean-up. It is wonderful to see you there.

See you on Thursday!
