WOODSIDE TWO'S VIEWS

Marge Chesnard, WV2

A memorial service was held for Janet Gibbons who passed away on December 19th. It was attended by 20 people and was done very nice. Any of the tenants who wish a memorial service, please contact Carol as she is still doing them for the tenants. Janet will be missed, as she was a fixture at the dinners. She helped clean up at every meal. Janet always said that she would have loved eating here every night as long as she didn't have to cook. Also, Betty Searle did a small poster for Janet and all those who came to the services signed it.

Remember the van runs every Monday, Tuesday, and Friday. Also, on Monday afternoon, Kevin takes residents to the Food Pantry. Be sure to call for a ride.

The days are getting longer and soon it will be warm again to start doing the gardens.

Remember the movies are still being held on Friday evenings at 6:30pm at the WV 2 Community Room. All are welcome. If there are any special movies that you

MUSINGS FROM WOODSIDE 3

Nancy Luedeman

What a climate! A blizzard Sunday, then sun, then rain. Then more sun! So -- time to attend to mechanicals. First the car: Inspection time is upon me. So what? Leave it until February. The TV has been replaced. The set is much better, the shows are the same. Football this week. Everyone go out to cheer for the Patriots (except those of us with New York roots)

Right now the sun is shining and it's warm! Finally, the computer monitor gave up the ghost. It has been replaced with new (to me) stuff, including a new e-mail address. -
- Last week I was part of the 4th Grade projects (Edgartown School) at the Playhouse -- So was Clark Maffitt (Bldg. 2). It was grand fun, I am looking forward to the Tisbury School plays this upcoming week, then Oak Bluffs and West Tisbury. Also for springier weather. We have earned it.

The political news is a prime topic at Woodside I. I hope tempers don't get too frayed between now and November. After all, a cool head is necessary in this season and everyone is entitled to his or her own opinion. Remember, the only thing that counts is YOUR vote at the ballot box so remember to vote but don't take part in discussions that raise your blood pressure.!!! Good advice for me!!!! Due to quite a mild winter, getting around hasn't been difficult for most. We also haven't had many on the sick list, all things considered. Many mornings I get up very grateful to be in a safe, warm place even though the news may sound grim on TV and in the newspapers. The U.S. hasn't had a war on its shores since The Civil War and that makes us very fortunate indeed. This past month I wrote to some of the service men who Joanne Murphy, MV's veteran agent is posted on our board. It was a little hard to know what to say but after I got going I truly enjoyed it. There is a lot to tell about our famous Island and I hope everyone I wrote to lives to visit it someday.

I'm going to end with a poem of Faith because I haven't been in the social game lately. "I never saw a Moor" - Emily Dickinson, 1800's famous MA reclusive poetess

I never saw a Moor

I never saw a Moor -
I never saw the Sea -
Yet know I how the Heather looks
And what a Billow be.

I never spoke with God
Nor visited in Heaven -

Answer: Dorothy Young

??? WHO AM I ???

I have black hair and look much younger than I am. I speak in a very clipped tongue. 24 hours a day is not long enough for me. I love dogs and people, maybe in that order. Smiling is not an effort for me. I have a very large family and I keep my car very shiny!

"Dinner at 5"

Please make your reservations at least one week in advance.
Help your neighbors come to the dinners by offering a ride and carpooling.

Reminders/Notes from Staff

Welcome to Sandra Webster! Sandra is the new Administrative Assistant in the Property Management Office, working with Dorothy, Jessica, and Judy in Woodside I. Please stop by and say hello.

Cleaning equipment needed: if you have an extra broom or mop, dustpan, or cleaning products, please let Ann Baird know – some residents are in need of cleaning equipment.

Storm Doors: Please help us conserve energy during these winter months by keeping the inside door to your apartment closed as well as the storm door. The storm door alone has very little insulating value.

Trash Disposal: A reminder to all – furniture, ironing boards, equipment, bicycles, appliances, and other such items can't be put in the dumpsters. If you need to dispose of such items or if you have a question, the Maintenance Department can give you the information about what can be put in the dumpster or how you can dispose of other items.
